The Mentor teachers of the practice-teaching schools are involved rather effectively in the internship sessions right from developing the lessons plans down to delivery of the lessons, and even beyond the classrooms.

- Time allotment, activities to be undertaken and responsibilities to be shouldered are finalised with the help of school-subject teachers
- The content area to be taught by student teachers is decided by the serving teachers. The student-teachers prepare lessons plan in consultation with the teacher.
- Suggestions given by the serving teachers are welcomed and the suggested changes incorporated. Particularly volume of the specific content and the method suitable are decided with their help. It provides continuity to the ongoing teaching process of the subject in the school from the point of view of school curriculum.
- School teachers are likewise involved in the assessment process.

2.3.7 - Teaching learning process nurtures creativity, innovativeness, intellectual and thinking skills, empathy, life skills etc. among students promotes:

- Collaborative group learning, both inside and outside the classroom;
- Individual and group student research and discovery;
- Research and discovery by students and faculty together;

The following techniques are also used:

- Project based learning: Projects are assigned to the students, through which they come to know how to solve a particular problem and study that problem in-depth.

Students are provided knowledge by undertaking projects on different subject and on different topics of the same subject. This develops their analytical skills and provides confidence at the end of the day.

- Computer aided Instruction: Students are given computer aided instructions and encouraged to use latest technology. Basic knowledge of using computer is provided through a compulsory paper. On this they can build up to start independent teaching jobs.
- Tutorial: Students attend one tutorial class per week wherein they are encouraged to speak at least for 5 minutes on important topics relevant to the field of education.

Micro-teaching technique is used in the college for strengthening various skills essential for effective and efficient teaching-learning process. First, lectures by experts are organized for gaining acquaintance with the concept of micro-teaching. Such lectures are followed by question and discussion sessions.

The students apply relevant skills for effective teaching. Each student has to teach five (micro-teaching) lessons in each subject, before the practice teaching session every year. The student teachers practice following skills while giving (20x2=) 40 lessons in two subjects put together.

Practice teaching is conducted in various government and private schools.

- Two lessons per day are delivered during their practice teaching sessions.
- Teacher educators (preferably subject experts) from the college are detailed to check and approve the lessons plans beforehand. The student-teachers are allowed to deliver the duly approved lesson plans.

- 60 to 70 per cent of the lessons in schools are observed by the faculty.
- Teachers of concerned schools also observe the lessons. The school teachers are encouraged to give suggestions for improvement.
- Teacher educators and school teachers note down remarks on the lesson plan book. Thus, on the spot feedback are provided to the student-teachers.
- More feedback comes in the form of discussion with the observers which is done soon after the lesson is finished;
- Detailed feed back is also provided in the college collectively on subsequent days.

Remarks on the notebook, subsequent discussion and observations based on self-reflection are taken into consideration for bringing about improvement. The process of observation and feedback is comprehensive and continuous.

1. Caring for Senior Citizens

With the advancement in the medical science today, the life expectancy has been increasing resulting in the phenomenon of 'population ageing'. This significant rise in the number of senior citizens and their proper health care and privileges for them are matters of great concern and challenge before us and especially before higher education institutions which can orient common people towards this noble task.

1. Learn with Me

There was a felt need to initiate a programme on Adult literacy for illiterate and neo-literate females in society, the success of which could serve as a small indicator of progress and development of a community and the society as a whole. There was an urgent need for making some efforts towards uplifting the literacy scenario in the area. These young girls and women who are underprivileged needed to be empowered with at least the minimum level of literacy.

'Social Insurance Awareness Programme for BPL Community' for creating awareness of the various insurance schemes available in the social sector to the underprivileged masses; to inculcate a sense of social responsibility in students; and to create a sense of security among the Below Poverty Line (BPL) community. practices decentralized and participative management for all academic and extracurricular activities. Decision relating to all academic activities is brought to the notice of the principal and the entire staff members meet together, discusses how decisions would affect the academic calendar and only then decisions are made. This is the regular practice Two practices that showcase this decentralized, participative process include: 1) Establishment of Committees: Various committees are in place for grievance redressal, staff selection, student selection, etc. which have their own policies and processes and the members in charge are able to make decisions pertinent to their activities 2) Democratically Elected Student Council: A democratically elected Student Council plans, organizes, and executes various co-curricular and extracurricular activities under the guidance of a faculty coordinator

The Admission Committee counsels prospective candidates for admission before the Application Forms for admission are released The Admissions Committee (for admissions) involves all members of the staff who co-operate and work at different levels. They also sit in at interface meetings and meet parents and students prior to admission. Planning Board (for financial planning and implementation) involves the participation of teachers and non-teaching staff. Every grant to the college is discussed in this Board. Budgets for each department at the beginning of the academic year also form part of the discussions. The Library committee prepares and plans for the book budget with individual departments. There is a Building Committee with members from faculty, architects, engineers, contractors and office staff to assist with the planning and execution of vertical extension of the college and planning for infrastructure associated with the new wing.
